

Pastor Albert Ting was born in Malaysia. He received his first theological training in Singapore Bible College and graduated in 1983. After serving in Malaysia for two years, he pursued further theological education at Talbot School of Theology (Biola University). He had served as the Associate Pastor in First Chinese Baptist Church, Fountain Valley for 7 years when the Lord called him back to Asia to teach in his Alma Mater, Singapore Bible College.

For almost 18 years, Albert devoted his life in theological education to train faithful servants of Jesus Christ. In the later years of his teaching ministry, he was called to be the President of Singapore Bible College from 2006 to 2014. Upon fulfillment of God's calling and purposes for his ministry in Asia, the Lord led Albert back to LA and called him to be the Senior Pastor of FCBC Walnut in September 2014.

Albert enjoys reading, hiking, movies, music, Lakers basketball, good food, Vietnamese coffee, cooking and spending time with family and friends. He is happily married to Rebecca and together they have two grown children, Jeremy and Adeline.
